BIOGRAPHIC BACKGROUND
AMBASSADOR-DESIGNATE ROBERT D. STUART, JR.
NORWAY

President Reagan has appointed Mr. Robert D. Stuart, Jr. of Lake Forest, Illinois, as United States Ambassador to Norway, succeeding Mark Evans Austad.

Mr. Stuart was formerly Chairman of the Finance Committee of The Quaker Oats Company. He had previously served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Quaker Oats from 1966-76, as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer from 1976-81, and Chairman of the Board from 1981-83. The Quaker Oats Company is an international marketer of foods, toys and specialty retailing businesses, with annual sales in excess of $3 billion.

Mr. Stuart has served as a director of other leading corporations, including Deere & Company, First Chicago Corporation, The First National Bank of Chicago, the Molson Companies, Ltd. of Canada, United Airlines and its parent, Ual. He is a member of the Business Council.

Mr. Stuart has also been active in educational and civic affairs. He is Vice-Chairman of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and a former Trustee of Princeton University. He also serves on the boards of the Benton Foundation, the Institute for Contemporary Studies and the Tax Foundation. Mr. Stuart has been active with the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations and has served on the Mid-West Regional Advisory Board of the Institute of International Education.

Mr. Stuart has been active in the Republican Party, serving as Chairman of the Illinois Finance Committee for Reagan/Bush '84. He was a Republican National Committeeman from Illinois from 1964-72.

Robert D. Stuart, Jr. was born April 26, 1916 in Hubbard Woods, Illinois. He was educated at Princeton University and Yale Law School, and served in the United States Army in Europe during World War II. Mr. Stuart was married in 1938 to the former Barbara Edwards. The Stuart family includes four grown children.
